Start recovery from 50K

Sun 3/6/16: 4 miles

Walk  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile, run  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile and repeat for 4 miles.

This is a good workout the day after a long run. I felt better as I went.

Mon 3/7/16: 3 miles

3 miles out and back on Limber Rd, up and down hill going out and coming back.

Last mile in 8:45. I don't feel stiff. I think yesterday's walk/run routine helped a lot.

Tues 3/8/16: 4 miles

I walked and ran on hilly roads, 4 miles in 42:27 or 10:36/mi.

During the last 3 miles I walked 6x45seconds.

Wed 3/9/16: 5.13 miles

I walked and ran 5.13 mile somewhat hilly course in 55:00 or about 10:36/mile.

At the beginning of each  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile I walked about  $\frac{1}{8}$  mile. Walking pace was about 14:45/mi.

Thur 3/10/16: 4.75 miles

Indoor track: 1mile, no shoes, 9:12

I can feel myself recovering from the 50K 10 days ago.

Wed 3/16/16: 1 mile

Jogged 1 mile before a 400 mile car trip to NJ

Thur 3/17/16: 6 miles

I ran and walked 6 miles mostly on paved path 3 times around Brookdale Park.

Up and down hill 3 times. The park loop is about 1.8 miles.

I walked about 0.15 miles at the beginning of each half mile.

The miles walked to miles run ratio was  $\frac{3}{7}$ .

Total: 6 miles in 65:12 or 10:52/mile.

Fri 3/18/16: 7.5 miles

Same course as yesterday only I ran 4 times around the park.

The first 2.5 miles I walked 0.15 miles at the beginning of each  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile, time 27:16 or 10:54/mi.

The 2nd 2.5 miles I ran without walking, time 23:04 or 9:14/mi.

The last 2.5 miles I walked 0.15 miles at the beginning of each  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile, time 26:54 or 10:46/mi.

Total: 7.5 miles in 1:17:14 or 10:18/mi.

41 miles in the last week

Sat. 3/19/16: 6 miles

Same course as yesterday only I ran and walked 3+ times around the park.

The first 2 miles I ran without walking, time 20:00 or 10:00/mi.

The 2nd 2 miles I walked 0.15 miles at the beginning of each 1/2 mile, time 20:54 or 10:27/mi.

The last 2 miles I ran without walking, time 18:13 or 9:07/mi.

Total: 6 miles in 59:06 or 9:50/mi.

Sun. 3/20/16: 7.5 miles

Same course as yesterday only I ran and walked 4 times around the park.

The first 6.5 miles I walked 0.17 miles at the beginning of each half mile, time 1:14:46 or 11:30/mile.

The last mile I ran without walking in 9:13.

Total time for 7.5 miles was 1:23:59 or 11:11/mi

Mon 3/21/16: 2.1 miles

The lower left side of my right knee is hurting a little.

Ran to Brookdale Park, once around the park at back and back at 10:15/mi.

My knee feels okay.

Tues 3/22/16: 6 miles

My knee is better but I will run mostly on outdoor track to protect it.

I ran 1/2 mile to Brookdale Park track, 5 miles on track, and 1/2 miles back.

The first two miles I ran without walking. The next 3 miles I walked about a minute at the beginning of each 1/2 mile. The last mile I ran without walking.

Time for 6 miles was 1:04:56 or 10:49/mi

I will continue to include a good deal of walking in my training because I am now planning a 12 hour run in May. This event will include some walking and I want to practice walking and pacing. I would like to average about 11:30/mi for 12 hours.

Wed 3/23/16: 5.5 miles

Before a 400 mile car trip home, I ran 1/2 mile to the Brookdale Park track, 4.5 miles on the track and 1/2 mile jog back. The first 2 miles I ran without walking. The next 2 miles I walked a minute at the beginning of each half mile, the fifth mile I ran without walking.

Times for each mile: 9:13, 8:58, 10:02, 9:40, 7:51

I rested 1 minute and jogged 1/2 mile back. I feel good.

Thur 3/24/16: 10 miles

Back in Meadville. In the morning I ran and walked 8 miles: 1 mile to Allegheny College track, 6 miles on the track, and 1 mile back. Miles 1, 2, 3 and 6 I ran without walking. During the other 4 miles I walked a total of about 0.25 miles. Time 1:25:36 or 10:42/mi.

In the afternoon I ran 2 miles with no walking. Average pace was 11:17/mi. I thought running at this slow pace would feel awkward but it wasn't too bad. Maybe I will not mix in walking when going at this slow pace during the 12 hour run. In that run I am planning to start out at about 10:20/mile and to slow down to about 12:00/mi as the race goes on. At 12:00/mi I know I will be mixing running and walking.

Fri 3/25/16: 6.5 miles

1 mile on indoor track with no shoes: 4:09+3:48=7:58.3. Rest 6:30

On treadmill: 6x880 yds with 440 jog before each 880.

880's averaged 3:52.3 and 440 jogs averaged about 3:05.

1 mile warm down

43.6 miles in the last week

Sat 3/26/16: 8 miles

I walked and ran 7 miles on hilly roads. I walked about 3 minutes on average during each mile and averaged 11:38/mi. I rested a few minutes and walked 1 mile.

Sun 3/27/16: 8 mile

I did about 2 miles on a trail. 1.5 miles of walking and about ½ miles of fast running. Rested 1 hour.

I walked and ran 6 miles to the college athletic fields, 3+ times around the 1.43 mile loop and back home. The loop is mainly on grass with a long up hill, a long down hill and about ½ mile of flat.

I walked about 0.19 miles at the beginning of each ½ mile.

This was enough walking to keep the average pace near 12:00/mi.

I just entered the Mind Your Ducks 12 Hour. It's in 7 weeks.

Mon 3/28/16: 4.85 miles

½ mile to the Wise Center. 1 mile on indoor track with no shoes, 4:39+4:15 = 8:54, rested 5 minutes.

On treadmill ¾ mile in 6:00. I was going to run more at that pace but my leg tightened a little below my right groin. Rested a few minutes and massaged my leg. I walked and ran 2.6 miles on the treadmill. I walked enough to keep the average pace near 12:00/mi.

Tues 3/29/16: 4 miles

I have been massaging my right leg where it tightened yesterday. It still is somewhat tight.

I ran and walked 1 mile to the outdoor track, 2 miles on the track and 1 mile home. I walked enough to keep average pace near 11:50/mi.

Wed 3/30/16: 8 miles

I have been massaging my right leg. It seems to be all better.

I ran and walked 7 miles on slightly hilly roads and 1 mile on the outdoor track. I walked about 0.1 miles during every ½ mile. This kept the average pace near 11:20/mi

Thur 3/31/16: 7 miles

I started a tempo run 3 days ago but had to stop because of tightness in my right leg. I have been massaging the left side of my right upper leg from my groin to my knee and I think I am ready to try the tempo run again. From the two Jack Daniels papers I mention in my website, I determine the pace for the tempo run should be 8:00/mi.

Warmup: I ran a mile on the indoor track: (4:38+3:58=8:36.5). Rest 4 minutes.

On a treadmill:

½ mile in 4:30 at various paces including some as fast as 7:13/mi. Rested 4 minutes and massaged leg.

¼ mile in 2:30 as a lead into the tempo run.

A 3 mile tempo run in 24:00 or 8:00/mi. My leg felt just slightly sore but was not a worry.

¼ mile warm down. Rested 4 minutes.

On indoor track I ran and walked 1.5 miles in 18:00: 1/8 mile run+1/8 mile walk then repeat 5 more times.

½ mile jog home.

Fri 4/1/16: 5 miles

I am practicing pacing for MTD 12 Hour run. The first and last of the 5 miles I ran without walking. During each of the middle 3 miles I walked twice with enough walking to make the pace come out to be what I had planned it should be. These are some of the paces I will use during the 12 hours.

Planned mile times: 10:50, 11:20, 11:50, 11:20, 10:50

Actual mile times: 10:40, 11:21, 11:52, 11:23, 10:43

Today I ran on slightly hilly roads. The 12 hour run will be on a relatively flat loop.

44.85 miles in the last week
